

It Was Jesus Who Taught

Works and Music by Andy Silver

1. It was Jesus who taught His disciples,
It was Jesus who called them by name.
Then one night on the lake came the wind and the rain,
And waves splashed right over the boat.

Chorus

*Splish, splash, pitter pitter pat,
Down came the storm with a bang and a crash.
Splish, splash, pitter pitter pat,
Down came the storm with a bang and a crash.*

2. It was Jesus asleep in the trawler,
It was Jesus who woke to their cries.
'Don't you care that we drown, we're afraid we'll go down!'
And the waves splashed right over the boat. [Chorus]
3. It was Jesus who stood to attention,
It was Jesus who spoke to the waves.
'You, be quiet, do no harm'; right way there was calm.
'Who's this man?' asked the men in the boat. [Chorus]
